

District Elder Reginald T. Cox

District Elder Reginald T. Cox was baptized in Jesus' Name in 1993 at Faith Apostolic Church in Birmingham, Alabama and filled with the Holy Ghost in 1994 at the Church of Jesus Christ in Washington D.C. District Elder Cox has held a myriad of positions while endeavoring to expand God's kingdom. He served as Youth President at Greater Faith Temple Apostolic Church in San Antonio, Texas; Brotherhood President at Bread of Life Apostolic Church in Mannheim, Germany; Sunday School Superintendent at Deliverance Apostolic Church in Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; and currently serves as the Pastor of Greater Christ Temple Apostolic Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado from 2008 to present.

In addition to District Elder Cox's labor in the Kingdom of God, he also faithfully served his country for 20 years in the U.S. Army as a Signal Corps officer before retiring as a lieutenant colonel in November 2008. District Elder Cox is currently employed as a JROTC Senior Army Instructor at Pueblo East High School where his role is to motivate young people to be better citizens.

District Elder Cox holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science at Alabama A&M University, a Master of Arts Degree in Computer Resource Information Management from Webster University, and a second Masters degree in Counseling at Colorado Christian University.

With First Lady Erica Cox at his side, God has given District Elder Cox the wisdom and knowledge to help and assist people as they endeavor to reach their full potential in the Lord. He and his wife exemplify a marriage ordained by God. They have raised four wonderful sons and a beautiful daughter.
