

Lady Bessie Sawyer

Lady Bessie Sawyer has been married to Suffragan Bishop John Sawyer for 46 years and has had the opportunity to travel extensively as an Air Force dependent with her father and her husband. She has lived in Virginia, Massachusetts, Utah, Nebraska, and Taiwan, and now they call Colorado home.

She enjoys working with numbers, teaching others naturally as well as spiritually, and assisting people with their personal finances. She has worked in various areas of accounting for over 45 years. She is a retired Tax Auditor from the City and County of Denver, has worked for one of the nationally known tax preparers and has also worked in the oil and gas industry and the airline industry in the accounting field. She has a BS in Accounting and has volunteered as a reading and math tutor.

She loves teaching the Word of God and working for the Lord; she is one of those people who believes in, "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might;" (Ecc. 9:10 - NIV).

She currently serves as Chairperson for the Constitution and Bylaws Committee for the Colorado State Council.
