

Evangelist Janet Essex

Evangelist Essex was born to William A. Lyle Sr. & Mary Jo Davis on September 28, 1965, in Salt Lake City, Utah. She is the middle child of three children born to this union along with her two brothers William Jr. & David. She received her high school diploma from Montebello High School in 1983 and continued her education receiving a certificate in Dental Assisting, and Certified as a Nursing Assistant.

Evangelist Essex is an Ordained/ licensed minister through the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, and pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Christian Counseling Ministry.

Evangelist Essex was baptized in Jesus name at the age of 12 and filled with the Holy Ghost at an early age. She has been a member of the Zion Temple Pentecostal Church for over 40 years, which is now under the pastorate of Suffragan Bishop Robert E. Martin Jr.

Evangelist Essex is an "established" willing vessel in the Kingdom of God and loves serving the Lord. She is currently serving Christian Education classes, and Mentor for the newly established ministry under the umbrella of the Women's Ministry "OPALs". Evangelist Essex also served as President of the Altar Workers Ministry, and also the Vice President of the Usher Board and she served as a Strategic Leader.

Evangelist Essex is married to the love of her life Brother Jerry Essex; this blended union has a total of seven children. She currently is employed with Century Link Communications in the Denver metropolitan area. She is also a Junior Partner with a financial investment group "Women of Faith Financially Fit" and a member of the Board of Directors for the Rocky Mountain Chapter for Better Investing.

Evangelist Essex has several favorite scriptures, but one thing she knows is without Christ she can do nothing and has learned to stand on the Word of God. Evangelist Essex is grateful that she has found her purpose in life, and with that mandate from God, is now walking out her mission in life. Her purpose is to uplift, encourage, equip and empower those God places in her path.

Evangelist Essex loves vacationing anywhere that has an ocean, enjoys water sports, walking, taking long bike rides, and a great movie.
